Sunday, April 23, 2017

Lincoln Cultural Center
403 East Main St. - Lincolnton, NC
3:00 pm

Formed at New York's Juilliard School of Music in 2008, the Tesla Quartet has quickly established itself as one of the most promising young string quartets in the country. Dubbed "technically superb" by The Strad, they have garnered top prizes at numerous international competitions including the Gold Medal at the 2012 Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition. The quartet has enjoyed a busy performing schedule, both in the United States and abroad, with recent international appearances in Austria, England and France. Come join us for what looks to be a very memorable classical concert experience.

STRICTLY STRINGS

Strictly Strings is an exciting new group from Boone, NC. Originally an Appalachian old-time string band, their music has expanded to include bluegrass, Irish, and swing, all topped off with fresh harmony vocals. They have recently won a number of Fiddler Convention competitions and have developed a loyal following throughout the area.

MICHAEL RENO HARRELL

Michael Reno Harrell is an award-winning songwriter as well as a veteran storyteller and entertainer. His original songs and stories have been described as “Southern grit and wit” and his recordings top the Americana Music Association charts year after year. His knack for storytelling has earned him much praise from both the music community and the literary worlds. The songs he writes and the stories he creates reflect a keen insight into people’s experiences that catch the ear like an old friend’s voice. Don’t miss the chance to experience what his many fans keep returning again and again to enjoy.

Founded in 1992, the Lenoir Saxophone Ensemble has performed jazz and chamber music for diverse audiences throughout the Southeastern United States and have traveled as far as Austria where they represented the US at the Kaiser-Fest in Bad Ischl. One reviewer there wrote that “the ensemble crushes conventions and expands the usual sax quartet repertoire”. The group has made a number of recordings, the newest entitled High Standards which pays homage to new arrangements and jazz standards by composer/arranger David Wilken. Performances of their music are regularly heard on public radio stations WNCW and WDAV and in Scotland through NPR cultural exchange programming.
